CHAPTER 33: CITY EMPLOYEES

* * *

POLICE OFFICER'S RETIREMENT SYSTEM

* * *

§ 33.128 NORMAL RETIREMENT

* * *

(B) Normal retirement benefit.

* * *

(2) Duration, survivor, benefits. A member retiring hereunder on his or her normal retirement date shall receive a monthly benefit which shall commence with his or her normal retirement date and be continued thereafter during his or her lifetime; upon his or her death before receiving retirement benefits for a period of ten years, the same monthly benefit will be paid to the beneficiary (or beneficiaries) as designated by the police officer for the balance of such ten-year period, or, if no beneficiary is designated, to the estate of the police officer. The former normal retirement benefit, which provided that, upon the death of the retired member, 50% of the full retirement benefit shall be continued to his or her spouse until the earlier of her or his death or remarriage, shall become an optional form of retirement income under § 33.129. No widow(er) of any deceased pensioner shall be eligible under the provisions of this section unless she or he shall have been married to such deceased member prior to his or her retirement.

(C) Disability.

(1) Service-incurred.

(a) Any member who receives a medically substantiated service-connected injury, disease or disability, as determined by the medical board, which injury, disease or disability permanently incapacitates him or her, physically or mentally, from his or her regular and continuous duties as a Police Officer, shall receive a monthly benefit equal to the greater of his or her accrued benefit on the date of disability, based on the applicable benefit rate set forth in subdivision (B)(1) of § 33.128, or 50% of his or her earnings in effect on the date of disability. Such benefit shall commence on the 91st day following the date of disability and shall continue until the earlier of death or recovery from disability; ~~provided, however, that upon death prior to recovery of a disabled member, his or her spouse shall receive, until his or her death or remarriage, a monthly benefit equal to 50% of the amount the disabled member was receiving from the fund at the time of his or her death. Upon remarriage or death of the spouse, the benefit shall be paid to the surviving children until the youngest child reaches the age of 18. If the member has designated a beneficiary (or beneficiaries), the beneficiary (or beneficiaries), upon death prior to recovery of the disabled member and prior to the member's having received the benefit for a period of ten years, shall receive, for the balance of such ten-year period, the same benefit that the member had received. If the disabled member dies prior to recovery without having designated a beneficiary (or beneficiaries) and prior to the member's having received the benefit for a period of ten years, the estate of the disabled member shall receive, for the balance of such ten-year period, the same benefit that the member had received.~~

(b) In the alternative, the member may elect, prior to the commencement of service-incurred disability benefits, to receive a monthly benefit as determined pursuant to subparagraph (1)(a) above until the earlier of death or recovery from disability and, upon death prior to recovery, have 50% of such benefit continued after his or her death to his or her spouse until the earlier of the death or remarriage of his or her spouse. No widow(er) of any deceased pensioner shall be eligible for such benefit unless he or she shall have been married to such deceased member prior to the date of disability. Upon remarriage or death of the spouse, the benefit shall be paid to the surviving children until the youngest child reaches the age of 18. If the member has designated his or her spouse as the beneficiary, upon death prior to recovery of the disabled member and prior to the member's having received the benefit for a period of ten years, the spouse shall select either the above-described benefit for a spouse and surviving children or the above-described benefit for a designated beneficiary. In the event of recovery prior to the otherwise normal retirement date, credit for service during the period of disability shall be granted for purposes of subsequent retirement benefits.

(2) Non-service incurred.

(a) Any member with five or more years of continuous service who receives a non-service incurred injury, illness, disease or disability, and which illness, injury, disease or disability permanently incapacitates him or her physically or mentally from his or her regular and continuous duty as a Police Officer, shall receive from the fund in equal monthly installments an amount equal to 2½% of his or her average monthly earnings for each year of continuous service. Until normal retirement date, death or recovery from disability, whichever shall first occur, the amount of such monthly disability benefit shall in no event be less than 25% of the member's earnings in effect on date of disability. Commencing with normal retirement date, the benefit shall be computed as a normal retirement benefit, except that continuous service shall include all years and completed months during the disability period. The benefit shall commence on the 91st day following the date of disability. ~~If in the event of death prior to the normal retirement date of a person receiving this benefit, the spouse shall receive the same amount as the disabled person was receiving until the earlier of the spouse's death or remarriage; provided, however, that if the disabled person has designated a beneficiary (or beneficiaries), the disabled person had ten or more years of credited service at the time he or she received the non-service incurred injury, illness, disease or disability, and the disabled person dies prior to recovery and prior to having received this benefit for a period of ten years, the disabled person's designated beneficiary (or beneficiaries) shall receive the same benefit for the balance of such ten-year period. If the disabled member dies prior to recovery without having designated a beneficiary (or beneficiaries) and prior to the member's having received the benefit for a period of ten years, the estate of the disabled member shall receive, for the balance of such ten-year period, the same benefit that the member had received.~~

(b) In the alternative, the member may elect, prior to the commencement of non-service incurred benefits, to receive a monthly benefit as determined pursuant to subparagraph (2)(a) above until the earlier of death or recovery from disability and, upon death prior to recovery, have 50% of such benefit continued after his or her death to his or her spouse until the earlier of the death or remarriage of his or her spouse. No widow(er) of any deceased pensioner shall be eligible for such benefit unless he or she shall have been married to such deceased member prior to the date of disability. Upon remarriage or death of the spouse, the benefit shall be paid to the surviving children until the youngest child reaches the age of 18. If the disabled person has designated his or her spouse as the beneficiary, the disabled person had ten or more years of credited service at the time he or she received the non-service incurred injury, illness, disease or disability, and the disabled person dies prior to recovery and prior to having received this benefit for a period of ten years, the spouse shall select either the above-described benefit for a spouse or the above-described benefit for a designated beneficiary.

* * *

(D) Pre-retirement death.

DRAFT (1) Death with at least ten years of service. If a member having at least ten years of continuous service dies prior to retirement, his or her beneficiary is entitled to the benefits earned as of the date of death otherwise payable to the member at early or normal retirement age; provided, however, that the amount of the monthly benefit shall be the greater of the member's earned accrued benefit otherwise payable at early or normal retirement age at time of death or the benefit otherwise payable under (D)(2) or (D)(3) below, as applicable.

(2 4) Service incurred death with less than ten years of service. A death benefit shall be payable in behalf of any member having less than ten years of continuous service who is killed or dies within five years as a direct result of an occurrence arising in the performance of service. (c) Upon remarriage or death of the widow(er) the benefit shall be paid to the member's surviving children until the youngest child reaches the age of 18 years.

(d) The manner of handling and administering the pension to any child or children shall be determined by the Board including the establishment of a trust for the benefit of said child or children. However, funds payable by the Board to any trust shall be for maintenance, health and education of said child or children during the period of existence of any such trust. No survivor pension shall be paid to any stepchild of a deceased member who had not been legally adopted by such member.

(e) For the purpose of benefits under this plan, the date of death of any member shall be established as the end of the calendar month in which such member dies.

DRAFT (3 2) Non-service incurred death with less than ten years of service. A death benefit shall be payable in behalf of any member having less than ten years of service who is killed or dies within five years from causes not related to performance of duty.
